

Speakers from many locations sharing experience from economic protests in Europe and "emerging markets" and "Occupy Wall Street" actions in America. Gathering an intellectual/political resource, beginning an interactive discussion.

Stockholm
London
Birmingham
Vienna
Durban
Caracas
Burlington
Toronto
Boston
New York
Washington,
Chicago
Madison
San Francisco
Olympia
Portland
and Ann Arbor, (place of the first teach-in)
and streamed live

GLOBAL TEACH-IN

SUSTAINABLE ECONOMY

WEDNESDAY

APRIL 25

RACKHAM AMPHITHEATER 915 E. WASHINGTON

Global speakers include: Bill McKibben, (climate change), Alice Slater, (from the war economy to peace economy) Pam Brown, (student debt relief), Ellen Brown, (public banking), Gar Alperovitz (democracy collaborative), Jessica Nebhard (Cooperatives) Jonathan Feldman (manufacturing jobs, and Global Teach-in initiator) and Peter Linebaugh (reclaiming the commons) is our local presenter.

11AM: opening
Noon-2pm: Global broadcast/local responses
2-4pm more global, local focus and followup

Social Work Allies for Immigrant Rights, University of Michigan Host Student Organization, supported by, Washtenaw Community Action Team, Occupy Ann Arbor, Gray Panthers of Washtenaw, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Megiddo Peace Project, Movement for a Democratic Society and others invited.

GLOBALTEACHIN.COM/GLOBAL-TEACH-IN-ANN-ARBOR

Global_Teachin_AnnArbor@yahoo.com

734 761-7967